To whom it may concern,

Compton Petroleum recently engaged Synovia to complete a full performance review of our IT department.

Synovia was able to systematically assess our IT operations in a short period of time, bringing to light our strengths while highlighting areas for us to work on.

The information that they uncovered was very useful and provided us a foundation for meaningful change and preparation for supporting the growth of our business.

I highly recommend Synovia to anyone looking to enhance their departmental performance.

Sincerely,

Norm Knecht
VP Finance & C.F.O.
